1945 Hi-Ways

PUBLISHED BY THE SENIOR CLASS OF WADESBORO HIGH SCHOOL

MARY FRANCES LOWE, Editor

MARGARET TUCKER, Business Manager

Foreword

We present this edition of the Hi-Ways to perpetuate a memory dear to us all—the memory of a year at Wadesboro High. We have had many experiences, some which seemed unimportant, but they will always remain in our hearts as part of our high school career. With our best wishes to the faculty and to the student body which follows us, we leave Wadesboro High.

DEDICATION

WE WISH to dedicate this, the 1945 Hi-Ways, to Mrs. W. J. Gullledge, our teacher, our grade-mother, and our staunchest supporter. Her keen interest in us and her unfailing devotion to us have been the inspiration for our gallant advance.

Class Song

TUNE: Till We Meet Again

*Class of '45 now wends its way
In its climb to reach the top someday
As we pass down life's long road
We may shoulder heavy loads, but
We shall strive to do our best always
And in later years we'll proudly say,
"We have loved dear Wadesboro High
May we meet again."*

*Time has come when we must say
"adieu"
Bid goodbye our friends and classmates true
We've worked hard throughout the years
Shared our joys and dimmed our fears, and Mem'ries fond we've found along the way
Dreams to cherish 'til a later day
While we hope and pray each night
That we'll meet again.*

Class Poem

*We have reached the open portals to the world,
And as we gaze at the scenes beyond
We know success for our class lies ahead
But the victory is not yet won.*

*In the days of tomorrow
May we never cease to say,
We have loved our school and teachers
Through each and every day.*

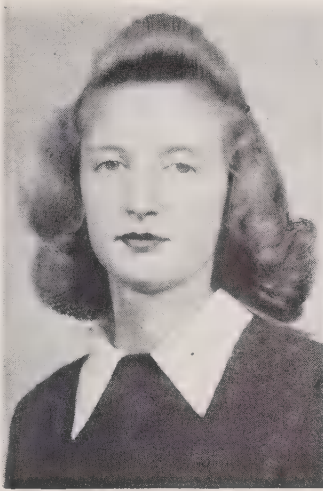

*And for their love and strength
Which have helped us on our way
May we do something worthy
That will to them our debts repay.*

*So in the bright tomorrow
That ahead of us does lie
We will always remember
Our Dear Old Wadesboro High.*

*And when we reach the summit
Of the world for which we strive
May we leave behind a memory
Of the class of forty-five.*

THE SENIOR

Class of 1945 stands at the fork of the broad, unexplored Hi-Way of Life. After twelve years of traveling the narrow and often difficult by-ways, the Seniors have made a good beginning on the greatest road of them all. They are now facing the decisive turn.

Scan the pages of history written by the Seniors during the past twelve years. True, they were not breathlessly exciting years, but they were not years spent worthlessly. Every pupil has met with trials, but each has had his share of happiness and cherished memories.

The first few pages of the "1945 Senior Class History" give one a glimpse of the early years, when a shy group of youngsters started their trek down the Hi-Way. They were given a grand send-off by Mrs. Joe Liles and Miss Mary Plunkett. By the second year, school was not as unfamiliar. Mrs. Chase Baughn and Miss Elizabeth Webb added a liberal share of "readin', writin' and 'rithmetic." Miss Julia Cameron and Mrs. Eleanor Gray left a lasting impression with their third grade work. The fourth year was the last year in the grammar grade building. It passed quickly under the splendid guidance of Mrs. Ethel Bennett and Mrs. Louis Fogleman.

The next four years were exciting ones for the Class of '45, for the members were getting accustomed to the newness of mingling with older students. They considered themselves quite "grown up" upon their arrival in the High School Building. Mrs. Heck Allen and Miss Pauline Pinkston gave them their first view into the vast unknown trails. During the sixth year, Mrs. W. W. Bennett and Miss Nora Boggan did a splendid job of broadening the knowledge of the eager group. Something new was added in the seventh grade—the thrilling experience of having four teachers and "changing classes." Mrs. W. J.

Gulledge, Miss Lillian Cunningham, Miss Alice Stough and Miss Worthy Spence contributed an even larger share of "readin', writin' and 'rithmetic," along with such subjects as geography, literature, history and English.

The eighth year was the culmination of the long climb to the broader ways. With the interest and help of Miss Kathleen Morris, Coach Howell, Miss Jane Hinson, and Miss Worthy Spence, the group prepared to travel the road marked "Advance," as they graduated from Junior High.

The final lap of the twelve year journey is crammed full of rich experiences. The freshmen shed their "green shell" under the guidance of Mr. W. L. Wildermuth, Miss Elizabeth Johnson, Miss Olive Kirby, Coach Howell, Miss Marion Craig, Mr. Gerald Hicks, Miss Louise Treadwell, and Miss Mildred Allen. Mr. V. W. Lewis, superintendent, and Mr. George Snuggs, principal, were ever ready to lend helping hands.

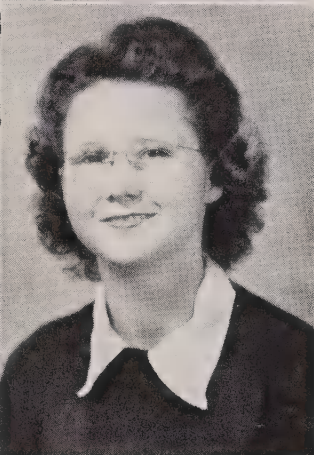

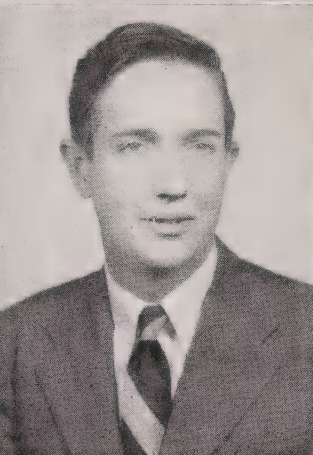

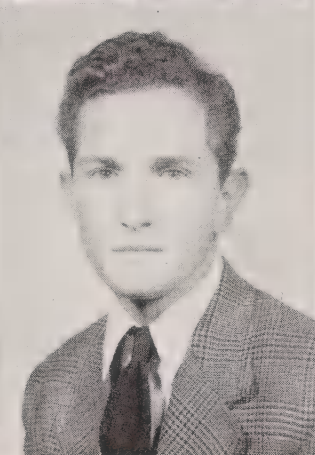

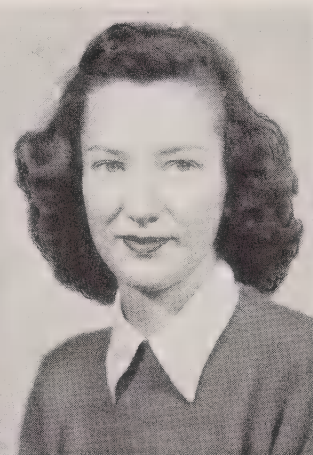

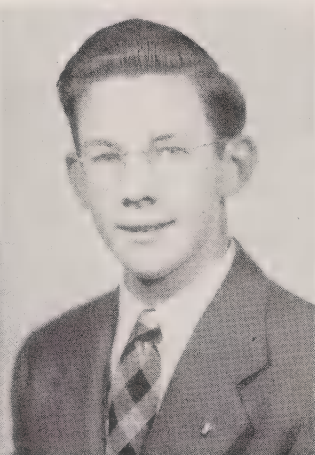

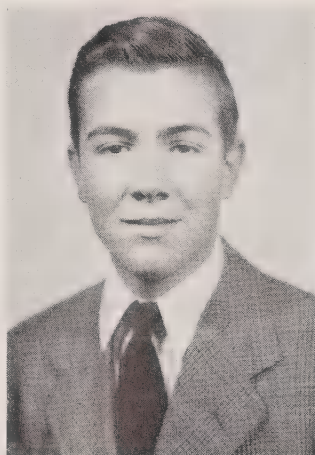

The "Sophisticated Sophomores" moved forward successfully with the encouragement of Miss Olive Kirby, Miss Elizabeth Fink, Miss Elizabeth Johnson, Mr. W. L. Wildermuth (who became principal after Mr. Snuggs' resignation), Mr. David Bennett, and three new teachers—Mrs. Ray Shelton, Coach, Mr. Shelley Cashion, and Mrs. Tom Wall.

The eleventh year was one of hard work, many changes, and great happiness. Many new instructors were added to the W. H. S. faculty. Miss Hermine Caraway, Mrs. George Huntley, Miss Betty Mintz, Miss Octavia Temple, Mrs. Robert Smith, Mr. Al Paling, Miss Blanche Banta, Miss Carrie Sturgis, and Mr. W. B. Terrell (Principal), added a refreshing "newness" to the atmosphere, and pushed the group forward with marked efficiency.

The Seniors are being directed in their final year of High School by the same faculty of their Junior year, with the exception of Mrs. Robert Smith, and Mrs. George Huntley, who have been replaced by Mr. Hix, and Mrs. George Miller.

The last chapter of the "History of the Class of '45" is filled with uncertainties, for war darkens views of the future. This, the most important year in High School, is the decisive moment when each Senior must decide which road he wishes to travel. With the courage, faith, and knowledge which have been instilled and encouraged through the years, the Class of 1945 is ready to start the long journey down the Hi-Way of Life.

Last Will and Testament

TO ALL WHOM THIS MAY CONCERN:

We, the Class of 1945, thought to be of unsound body and mind, but having fooled the faculty to the extent that they now dismiss us from our years of hard study, mixed with our mischief, joys, and fun in Wadesboro High School, do hereby make, execute, and publish our last will and testament.

To Mr. Lewis, our superintendent, we leave our gratitude for his kind help.

To Mr. Terrell, we leave our deepest appreciation for being the only person able to make us feel superior. Our hopes that in his "new office" he will not be bothered by "loafers" and by people wanting to go somewhere, goes along with this.

To Miss Sturgis, our understanding senior advisor, we leave our thanks for all she has done for us and our hope that she will not forget the Class of '45.

To the faculty we leave our regrets that we have not been a model class.

To the Junior Class we leave the privilege of following in our footsteps.

I, Richard Clark, do leave my place as president of the Monogram Club and president of the "4-Club" to Shine Huntley.

I, Caroline Gullledge, do leave my hopes that the next editor of the "Student Prints" can keep secret the Senior of the Month and the writer of Kampus Kat and Princess Prints.

I, Peggy Hardison, do leave my business ability to Rose Marsh.

I, Milly Williamson, do leave my ability to "run" the senior class to the president of the Class of '46.

I, Elaine Bennett, do leave my gift of gab to anyone who will make an announcement in the senior class every morning. My position as President of the "Foo Club" goes with this.

I, Sara Lou Timmons, do leave my sophistication to Louise Anderson.

I, Juanita Johnson, do leave my long red hair to Margaret Ann Wingate.

I, Billy Muldrow, do leave my height to Bob Lampley.

I, Bill Surratt, do leave my love to Sammy Boswell.

I, Mary Frances Lowe, do leave the fun and headaches of getting out an annual to the next editor.

I, Joe Winfree, do leave my willingness to chauffeur the senior girls to Frank Baker.

I, Thelma Caudle, do leave my interest in men to Betty Ruth Gaddy.

MARGARET TUCKER
Testator

We, Ruth and Marty Smith, do leave our ability to get along with each other to all brothers and sisters who fuss incessantly.

I, Bill Lewis, do leave my friendly "Hello, How're you?" to Harold Edwards.

I, Chapman Hill, do leave my good sportsmanship to Spence Lowe.

I, Earl Henry, do leave my romantic ways to Herbert Coggin.

I, Bill Beck do leave my knowledge of clothes and my way with women to Fulton Tucker.

I, Roxie McQuage do leave my ambition to the laziest girl in the Class of '46.

I, Bill Tice, do leave my position on the football team to any backfielder who can make the Shrine team.

We, Rebecca Marsh and Christine Hanna, do leave our good friendship to Tanner Allen and Bobbie Long.

I, Thomas Wall, do leave my curfew hour to Jack Anderson.

I, Homer Stogner, do leave my happy-go-lucky manner to Walter Mitchell.

I, Edna Gray Henley, do leave my pacifist personality to Barbara Covington.

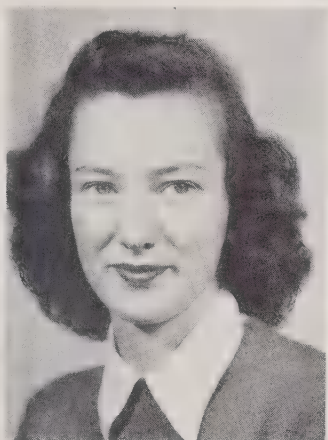

I, Inda Hildreth, do leave my big blue eyes and my dimples to Mary Lou Streater.

I, Cora Hildred, do leave my quiet manner to Lula Stanback.

I, Margaret Tucker, having no special talent, do leave my love and best wishes for all those who follow us in Wadesboro High School, "advancing in their strife for success."

In witness whereof, we, the said Class of 1945 do to this last will and testament, set our seal this day of June, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and forty five.

THE CLASS OF 1945

ELAINE BENNETT
Prophet

Class Prophecy

I hear a band in the blue. I turn to see a large building with lights around it, reading "The Ritzy Bitzy Club." I walk in and am amazed to see the band is being lead by that well known trumpet player Bill Beck. Bill has as his pianist that adorable blond Sara Lou Thompson. But Lou isn't the only pretty blond here, I see another in front of the band. Yes, I think Bill must really like blonds for his vocalist is Roxie "Blondie" McQuage. The "Ritzy Bitzy" is being run by Earl Henry. Earl seems to spend most of his time dancing with his secretary Julia Burr.

I walk out of the night club feeling very tired and sleepy, and decide to resume my adventures the next day. I spend the night at the "Wall-Rat" Hotel owned by Tom Wall and Bill Surratt. Bill and Tom have as their hotel guest that famous poet Bill "Longfellow" Muldrow. Bill kept everyone awake reciting his best loved poem, "The Smoky Mountains."

The next morning I resumed my sight seeing tour. Around the corner from the hotel is a neat little office. On the door is a sign reading "All but the Lonely Hearts." This Lonely Hearts' Bureau is being run by Thelma Caudle, Louise Cranford, and Cora Hillard. It seems Joe Winfree carries on correspondence with all of them.

I see a cafeteria across the street and I decide to go in and eat. The cafeteria is run by Esther Milton. Esther tells me she has two hostesses that I know, Alma Henry and Mary Jordon.

Alma also tells me they are having the "Swing Bowl" football game this afternoon in the W.H.S. Stadium, Vale vs. Yarvard. I am amazed to find that the coaches of the two challenging teams are friends of mine, Coach Richard Clark of Vale and Coach Bill Tice of Yarvard. I learn that that dramatic sports announcer Chapman Hill is to announce the game. Before the game "Chap" is going to give the profile of two great Coaches "Rich" and "Rab."

I come out into the sunlight once more and I see before me a building I have never seen before. It is the new library building, "The Students' Resort," used only by W.H.S. students, founded by Christine Hanna. Here any student is able to get a short writeup of any book for a book report. "Crip" has as her most capable assistant, Martha Ruth Kendall.

All at once I hear some one scream in my ear, "Extra! Extra!" Buy your "Gossiping Observer!!" I turn to see a small lad selling papers, and buy one. On the front page I see in large letters Editor-in-Chief: Caroline Gulledge; Associate Editor: Mary France Lowe. It seems "C. G." and

This is the year 1955 and many strange changes have taken place in the last ten years. This is now truly a world of science. The car has been done away and everyone is riding in helicopters. As I sit in my office overlooking Grand Central Station, I see swarms of people buzzing in and out. I begin to wonder about the Class of '45 under the guiding hand of Miss Sturgis. As I see a helicopter fly pass my window, I decide to go back to Wadesboro and see my old classmates. I open a door on to the roof of my building, walk out, get into my helicopter, and begin my journey southward to my Alma Mater.

As I park my helicopter on the main drag in Wadesboro, a large electric sign catches my eye. It reads "It Could Never Be Worse" starring Margaret "Lana Turner" Smith and Bill "Alan Ladd" Lewis. It seems Marty and Bill have really made a name for themselves in the world of acting.

The "Do-Reet" Theater where this is being shown is run by none other than Charles Adcock and the ticket girl is that pretty little Inda Hildreth. After all these years Charles and Inda are still together.

I walk on down the street and there stands the large professional building. I see a sign reading Dr. Richard Covington, Chiropractor, and Dr. John Williamson, Chiropodist. It seems Dick and John have as their nurses Mildred Williamson and Juanita Johnson. Rumor has it "Play-Boy" Bert Thomas, the town's leading attorney, visits there quite often to see Milly.

Next to the professional building stands "Hardison and Stogner Dress Shop." Peggy runs the shop, while Homer does the designing. The creations of Paris were never so lovely and the models never so beautiful. I am surprised to see that so many of these models are from the Class of '45. The girls employed here are Edna Gray Henley, Ruth Smith, Rebecca Marsh, and Sadie McLaurin.

The Athletics of Wadesboro High School

RAY SHELTON

WILLIAM B. TERRELL

Athletics play an important part in the school life of the students of Wadesboro High School. Those who do not actually participate in athletic events are always strong supporters of the wearers of the purple and gold.

The Tigers of 1944 took the gridiron with fair prospects for a successful season although several stars from the 1943 team had either graduated or were in the service. The boys did themselves proud by racking up six wins and two ties while losing only three. This put the Tigers in third place in the Western Conference standings for the second straight year. The team and school were also honored by having Co-captain Bill Tice chosen to play in the Annual Carolinas Shrine Bowl Game in Charlotte.

Coach Ray Shelton's Tigers and Coach Bill Terrell's Tigerettes are now in the midst of their basketball season, and indications point to a very successful season for both teams. The boys were fortunate in having Co-captains Bill Tice and Richard Clark left from last year; newcomer Truett Burris and rookie Jimmy Clark have also come through in fine style.

For the girls' team Betty Ruth Gaddy and Margaret Tucker were the only returning veterans; therefore it has taken the girls awhile to get on the winning road, but they seem to be on their way to making this a fine season at this writing.

In a few weeks now basketball will be a memory for the time being, and the diamond Tigers will take the field and cross bats with some of the best teams in this section. Many veterans will be on hand around which it is hoped a winning combination can be formed. As last year, a lot of our baseball hopes will depend on the pitching of Spencer Lowe and hitting of Tice, Clark, and Meeks.

Without doubt this year has been a great one for athletics at W. H. S.

"Mary Fran" put out so much gossip that you will never have to use the back yard fence again. Glancing over the pages, I see an article entitled "Stranger than it Seems." It seems that that amazing little redhaired brain specialist, Margaret Tucker operated on a man who every specialist in the world had expected to die and now the man had again regained his health. "Mog" was doing wonders in the world of science.

Feeling very proud of the Class of '45, I start my journey homeward. As I rise in the clouds I hear a voice ring out, "Forward so gallantly we advance, seeking success in our strife." I know my classmates are still going by the motto we had written ten years earlier.

THE CLASS OF 1945

my Dear "Stinker,"

I think back to our younger ages, in the 10th grade, to be sure. Mr. Farrell was such a fine gentleman. I can't see just how he stood our misconduct. When we first went to the office for talking, it was not so easy, but when we went ~~to the~~ back for striking matches, cursing, talking, ~~striking~~ blows, Brother was as I scared ~~every~~ time, we always came out easy. I guess we just didn't understand Mrs. Miller & William tho.

I then were the good old day ~~then~~ tho. Now we are in a big office & all we do is just eat & get fat.

Love, "jippe"
Jimmy
